

QUALITY DATA MATTERS!

Each quarter for the next year, AMPO will be providing you with information that can be shared with your staff to convey the importance of the data they're providing. We would appreciate your help in sharing the following information via email and emphasizing the importance of the data they collect during meetings or in one-on-one conversations with your staff.

If you have any questions, please contact:

Dave Solsrud
320-214-6428

We need your help to promote quality data!

